

About Deborah Bouchoux, Esq.

- Adjunct Faculty – School of Continuing Studies at Georgetown University
- On-Demand Instructor with VPG on para-professional courses in the legal community

Deborah Bouchoux is a licensed attorney with more than twenty-five years of experience in legal education as well as more than twenty years as a practicing attorney. As a practicing attorney, Ms. Bouchoux focused on business formation, advice, and strategy as well as intellectual property. She was in-house counsel at a tech company in northern Virginia for four years. She has taught at various universities, including the University of San Diego, Marymount University, The George Washington University, and Georgetown University. She is the author of the following books:

- Business Organizations Law in Focus (co-authored with Christine Chung)
- Business Organizations for Paralegals
- Fundamentals of Business Organizations for Paralegals
- Intellectual Property for Paralegals
- Patent Law for Paralegals

- Protecting Your Company's Intellectual Property
- Aspen Handbook for Legal Writers
- Legal Research and Writing for Paralegals
- Write Mate: A Guide to Writing and Style
- Legal Research Explained
- A Concise Guide to Legal Research and Writing
- Cite Checker: Your Guide to Using The Bluebook
- Cite-Mate (a guide to citation form)
- The Practical Paralegal: Strategies for Success
- From Internship Through Employment

Ms. Bouchoux has spoken on a variety of legal topics and provided legal training at private law firms, Fortune 500 companies, and various government agencies, including the U.S. House of Representatives (Office of General Counsel), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Department of Justice, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and the U.S. Tax Court.

Ms. Bouchoux is a member of the Bar of the District of Columbia (active) and the California State Bar (inactive).

Education

Santa Clara University - J.D., Law (summa cum laude)

San Diego State University - B.A., American Studies (magna cum laude)